Also, regarding our caterer, Italian Connection of Dumont, was also excellent as usual and a thank you should go out to the owner. He has consistently given very good service over the years. In addition, our entertainment needs for our parties were also discussed. To date they have always been great.

Tentative dates for upcoming venues were also discussed and will be released during our monthly meetings.

We would also like to mention that at the Volunteers Party at the Fiesta, our mayor, Arvin Amatorio, gave our committee an honorable mention which is greatly appreciated and to know that our service to the Bergenfield senior community is acknowledged.
